

The items in this chart are intended as examples only. Your chart should include those items specific to your community/program and incorporate best practices identified by you and your collaborators.

Outputs (examples only)	Strategies (examples only)	Projected Outcomes (over the next year - examples only)
15 families will participate in the program in the first year of implementation.	Families will be recruited by...(list strategies, who will accomplish them and why they will work for your community) Encouraging families' persistence in services will be accomplished by...list strategies, who will be responsible, and why they will work for your community) Orientation process for families when first enrolled, why design will meet needs of families/community and (agency) who will be responsible. Parent action council will be developed to ensure that parents have a voice in the design of the program and intergenerational activities...facilitated by?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 50% of Parents will gain the skill they need to support their child's literacy development by June 30, 2011 as evidenced by..... • Ten community agencies meet monthly to discuss services and coordination to best serve community beginning on July 1, 2010. • Fifteen families receive wrap-around services that are coordinated and convenient for the family, and are delivered by a variety of collaborating agencies. These services are reviewed for each family on a weekly basis beginning with enrollment. • 50% of the parents report feeling empowered and comfortable advocating for their child at home, at school and in community on individual surveys.
10 parents with less than an eighth grade reading level will attend literacy classes or will meet with a literacy volunteer tutor 5 parents with less than a 12th grade reading level will begin a course of study to earn their GED.	Curriculum used will be...and why appropriate Number of hours per week of instruction...and why appropriate Instructional will take place in a center? at home ?, via technology ? will be supported by what agency? Why is the model appropriate?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 75% of the adults who participate in all components of the family literacy program for a minimum of 75 hours will demonstrate an increase in their reading skills as demonstrated by the CASAS. • Adult educators, community colleges, job training offices meet monthly to assure that instruction is appropriate for parent employment goals • 50% of parents report on parent surveys that they read more to their children at home • 50% of parents visit library regularly with their child(ren).

5 children between the ages of birth and 4 will participate in activities that focus on a developmental model of early literacy competencies or the State of Maine Early Childhood Learning Guidelines.	Curriculum used will be ...why is it appropriate? Number of hours of engagement with early childhood specialist and why appropriate Instruction will take place in home, in center, etc and will be supported by what agency... and is appropriate because...	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 90% of the children, ages birth-4, who participate for a minimum of six months will demonstrate age appropriate developmental skills as determined by...(name of assessment)Children are developing at an age appropriate level and will have the literacy skills to enter school and succeed. • 10 children will visit the library monthly as reported on parent surveys.
7 children will receive literacy instruction that meets the Guiding Principles of the Maine Learning Results in their regular classroom. 6 children will receive supplemental literacy instruction provided by the family literacy program in coordination with their classroom teacher.	Supports used will be...and why are they appropriate? Instruction will take place in school and through... Visits to the library will be supported by (agency name)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 90% of the children, ages 5-8, who participate for a minimum of six months will demonstrate an increase of one grade level in literacy skills as measured by... (name of assessment) • 5 children read at grade level as reported by classroom teachers.
15 families will participate in high quality intergenerational activities as part of the early literacy and adult literacy programs.	Activities will be designed and facilitated by (agency) and be held monthly/weekly/daily. Supports/incentives to be used are... These strategies are appropriate because...	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 90% of families will participate in monthly/weekly/daily intergenerational activities as measured by parent journals/instructor logs... • By June 30, 2011, 100% of parents will learn to engage their children in activities that support their literacy development at home as evidenced by teacher and student logs. • By June 30, 2011, 100% of parents and children will have designed at least one activity to engage in together as evidenced by learner logs.