Did you know that your reading skills impact your child's success in school? What are you doing to help yourself and your child this summer? It is never too late to improve your reading!

Here are a few on-line resources to get you started, but don't forget to check out what your public library has to offer too!

Maine Family Literacy Initiative Find a family literacy program near you by visiting our website at www.mainefamilyliteracy.com. Join us on Facebook and Twitter too!

Maine Adult Education Find a program in your community to help you improve your own reading skills at <http://www.maineadulted.org/> or call 800-322-5455.

Reading Rockets Get tips for some fun literacy activities to do with your child <http://www.readingrockets.org/audience/parents/> or call 703-998-2001.

Raising Readers is about helping children enjoy reading and language by exposing them to colorful, wonderful books. Check out the developmental milestones (skills that most children can do at a certain age) http://www.raisingreaders.net/parents\_and\_families/ or call 800-397-3263.

Born Learning is a public engagement campaign that helps parents, grandparents and caregivers explore ways to turn everyday moments into fun learning. <http://www.bornlearning.org/default.aspx?id=17> or call your local United Way.

Pre-K Smarties is a preschool education resource full of tips and articles for parents <http://www.preksmarties.com/>

The Maine Family Literacy Initiative is a program of the Barbara Bush Foundation for Family Literacy
